Rarely available in coveted Los Ranchitos, 4 Ranch Road is a truly exceptional property offering privacy, scale, versatility, and resort-style amenities across approximately one level acre. Framed by mature landscaping and open surroundings, the property has the rare feeling of a private country retreat, peaceful, expansive, and seemingly miles away from it all, while remaining remarkably close to everyday conveniences. The single-level residence spans approximately 2,428 square feet with three bedrooms and two bathrooms, featuring gracious living spaces, abundant natural light, and seamless access to the surrounding grounds. Not included in the stated square footage, the detached pool house with a bathroom offers exceptional flexibility as guest quarters, an au pair suite, private office, wellness space, or sophisticated poolside retreat. The land is one of the property's defining features. Approximately one acre of remarkably level, highly usable grounds creates an extraordinary sense of openness and privacy, with beautiful outlooks across the property and multiple areas to entertain, relax, play, and gather. A separate driveway leads to an expansive, beautifully level open area, offering an additional sense of space, access, and versatility. A sparkling swimming pool, volleyball court, bocce ball court, outdoor wine cellar, expansive entertaining areas, mature landscaping, and generous open space come together to create a true
